CATTLE CLATTER.

It has been the great good fortune of the "presiding elder" of this column to ride over a considerable area, of Mason County within the past few days, seeing the fine fat Hereford herds that inhabit the ranges thereof.
And one of the things which makes the Herefords so beautiful is that they are fat, sleek and free of ticks.
Go where you will over the rugged hills and through the valleys and "draw" in the brush and among the boulders that are strewn everywhere, these cattle are grazing in their lordly beauty and apparent happiness. A big, sleek, tick-free Hereford just naturally seems happy. Every little while, as the trusty rider along the ranch country roads, one is seeing these fine cattle. This has been a good range this year, for there was plenty of rain all along until recently, and although it is now getting dry here and there, there is yet no suffering. The people of Mason do not overstock, so far as one can judge by driving through, and as a result, where the dryer areas now are, still the ranges are not bare. But range and rainfall alone are not the things making the Mason cattle so pre-eminent. It is something else—a thing that once upon a time cost a wagon load of mazuma, namely, tick eradication. These sleek cattle have no ticks—no unsightly parasites sticking to them, sapping them of blood and sustenance. Several years ago the people of Mason decided to clean up the ticks—decided on it voluntarily, before the law reached down among them. They went at it with an eye to success—on the part of most of them. The cattlemen built their own vats—figuring that no matter if the county did build them, they would be the boys that would eventually pay for them, hence why not pay for them at first. They also bought their own dip. They cut their mountains and vales up into smaller pastures, with vats between, so that all the cattle were dipped from one pasture into another, 100 percent, then dipped back, or into still another. There are a lot of humorous things about that first campaign. Take the case of Wess Smith, one of the three prominent Smith boys, the other two being Howard and Ed. Wess was a happy-go-lucky sort and for the life of him he couldn't take the first year of it seriously. He just laughed his way along, allowed the inspector to believe he was dipping clean 100 per cent when he was not; letting a wild steer go undipped if he got mean to catch; and other kindred things. At the end of the first year Wess waked up to realize that while some men had got their pastures clean he still had cattle showing up with a few ticks. Then he got down to "brass tacks", as he says, and put all his cattle through the vat at the right time. Up till then, he laughingly admits, he had been thinking it was "smart" to get by that way.
When he saw he had the wrong idea he pitched in and rectified his error.
Wouldn't let ticks stay on his cattle at all now. The Smith boys are big operators, and once they lost 400 big steers by tick fever, whereby hangs an interesting tale. There is a portion of Mason county called the granite area, which was tick-free by nature—at least has been free since the white man brought his herds to this county. The granite boulders rear their heads out of the soil all around on every hand, and granite underlies the whole area. Somehow in the onward march of the tick, he never got hold of that area. The Smith boys took these 400 big steers out of that territory and put them in the brushy hills 15 miles away—and they all fevered and died. At that early date they had never heard of tick fever and had no idea what was killing their cattle. Now they know what killed them. Cleaning up the tick in Mason county has been no spring festival, either. It is hard on saddle horses, for the mountain and vales and plateaus are all covered with small stones which wear and weary horses terribly. It is a brushy land, and getting cattle out of the brush is a difficult thing to do, itself. Mason county has a whole regiment of men who have large holdings in land and cattle, among them being the Smith boys, Capt. J.

W. White, the Brandenberger brothers, John, Frank and Jim; Max and Charlie Martin, Sam Capps; Peter Elk and Hill Jordan; John Eckert; Elgin, Ben and Dan Kothman; W. N.
Hoffman, C. D. McMillian, Sam Hoerster and still others. Their Herefords range on a thousand hills; may good fortune continue to smile on the Mason County stockmen.—

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Hondo people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Thos. McCall, carpenter, of Hondo endorsed Doan's four years ago and again confirms the story.
Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"I came down with an attack of kidney trouble," says Mr. McCall.
I had such a severe pain in my back I could hardly stoop or lift. My back pained all the time and made it difficult for me to do my work. I had heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of so I bought some at Wind-row's Drug Store. Doan's helped me right away and two boxes removed the trouble."

Mr. McCall gave the above statement May 29, 1915 and on May 5, 1919, he added: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times for a slight backache since they cured me four years ago. I think just as much of Doan's as ever."

GIRL'S STATEMENT WILL HELP HONDO.

Many women will profit by the following statement of one of their sex:
"I was afraid to eat on account of stomach trouble. Even rice did not agree. After taking Adler-ika I can eat anything." Adler-ika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels, removing foul matter which poisoned stomach. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or sour stomach. Guards against appendicitis. It brings out poisonous matter you never thought was in your system. W. H. Windrow, Otto Liebold is carrying his left hand in a sling as the result of a fall. While engaged in painting at the old home of Dr. R. P. Thomas, now the property of Joe Ney, the step-ladder on which he was standing fell with him, Mr. Liebold's hand going through a window glass. While his hand suffered several cuts none of them are very serious, and he will soon be back on the job again. The mishap occurred about 11:00 o'clock Wednesday.

ACCIDENTLY KILLED.

In a deplorable accident at Mirando, near Laredo, at about 5:30 last Monday afternoon the life of a Medina county boy, Wesley Earl Mofield, was instantly blotted out.

Wesley was employed in the Mirando oil field, and was engaged in firing a boiler when the fatal accident occurred. Seeing that something was wrong, he called a fellow worker, and just as they had returned to the boiler to make investigation, they were met by a terrific explosion—the boiler blew up and Wesley and the other young man were instantly killed.

The news of Wesley's untimely passing spread rapidly over town immediately after the news was received and caused many expressions of deep regret that such a sad calamity should have overtaken a young man so universally known and esteemed by our people.

Deceased was a native of Medina county, being born at Yancey on the 18th day of May, 1901. He stood at the threshold of vigorous young manhood, being but 22 years of age at his last birthday. He united with the Methodist Church of his native town some eight years ago, transferring his membership to the Methodist Church of Hondo when he came here with his parents in January 1917.

Being of an ambitious disposition to get ahead in the world, and knowing that employment in the oil fields was remunerative, Wesley cast his lot with the Mirando field and was doing splendidly in his chosen line of endeavor when his terrible fate overtook him.

While our people deeply deplore and were made sad by the unfortunate circumstance of his untimely passing, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mofield, who are coming in for more than their share of sorrow in the passing of their children are not forgotten. Three sons, all grown to man's estate, have passed to the realm beyond the grave in a brief few years, one by sickness, one with his face to the enemy on the bloody battlefield at Chateau Thierry, France, and one, the one here recorded, and they have the sympathy of all our people in their terrible trials.

The body of Wesley arrived Wednesday and was consigned to Mother Earth in Mofield lot in the Hondo cemetery at 10:00 o'clock Thursday morning, in the presence of a sorrowing throng gathered to pay a last tribute of love to the departed.

Besides his parents, he is survived by four sisters and two brothers, who are bowed with grief over his passing. Human consolation has no meaning for them but must come from Him who "doeth all things well."

The Hondo Aztecs, our Mexican baseball team, returned from the border, where they played games Sunday and Monday. Sunday they played a double-header with the Eagle Pass team, dropping both games to the borderites, the first by a score of 4 to 3, and the second by a score of 2 to 10. Monday they had a mix-up with the Spofford bunch on the Brackettville diamond and again went down in defeat by a score of 2 to 3. The long trip to Eagle Pass Saturday night left the team somewhat jaded and not physically fit. They camped on the road this side of Eagle Pass and fought mosquitos until daylight. The Aztecs say they were royally treated on their swing around, the only disagreeable feature being the scores handed them. However, they believe they are still the best team and believe they can turn the tables on the borderites if they can arrange games on our local diamond which they hope to do.

ROUND ABOUT THE HOME

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPERS.

By Helen H. Downing, Director of Home Economics.

The growing tendency of young couples to do all entertaining outside of the home, at a restaurant or club, is to be deplored. It is most expensive in the first place and it also fails to provide the young wife with the experience she needs in the art of being a hostess.

If the young home manager must cook and serve a meal without the help of a maid, a dinner is rather a formidable undertaking, although with a little practice it is quite possible.

You have no doubt, dined at many tables where a dinner consisting of soup, meat and two vegetables, followed by salad, dessert, and coffee, and which was perfectly cooked and daintily served by the hostess herself.

For her first entertaining the bride would do well to confine herself to an easier meal, say a Sunday evening supper. There is always something rather informal about this meal. As most people dine in the early afternoon hours on Sunday, supper may be served later than usual, and it may follow music or some entertainment suitable to the occasion.

The meal may properly consist of only one hot dish which can easily be popped into the oven or made in a chafing dish on the table. Aside from this, dainty sandwiches or tea biscuits may be served, and a salad of canned fruits and small cakes make excellent dessert.

INDIVIDUAL STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKES.

Make a dough as for Standard Biscuit adding a heaping tablespoon of sugar to the baking powder and flour, if sweet shortcake is wanted. Bake in individual cake tins 15 to 20 minutes in moderate oven. Brush with melted fat. Crush the strawberries and add sugar enough to make juicy before spreading on top of shortcake. Whipped cream sweetened and flavored to taste served on top adds to its palatableness.

FILLINGS FOR SANDWICHES.

"Mint and cucumber sandwiches are refreshing in hot weather," says the Household Editor of the Farm Journal. "To make, dip thin slices of cucumber in French dressing. Place these on slices of buttered bread and sprinkle with chopped fresh mint leaves."

Onion sandwiches made The Farm Journal way, are liked by many. Chop a Spanish onion very fine, put in a napkin and wring hard, mix with two hard boiled eggs chopped fine, add mayonnaise and spread on thin slices of bread and butter.

Savory filling, made according to The Farm Journal requires one cupful of cheese which has been put through a meatchopper, three-quarters of a cupful of finely chopped nuts, one sweet pepper or one pimiento, also chopped. Moisten with mayonnaise or a thick boiled salad dressing and put between lightly buttered slices of graham or white bread.

Soup beans, as given in The Farm Journal, can be made into an appetizing sandwich filling, thus: Cook one pint of white soup beans until done, then drain and mash fine. Add three tablespoonfuls of melted butter, three tablespoonfuls of finely chopped onions, three hard-boiled eggs, also finely chopped. Season well with salt and pepper and beat to a cream. This makes an appetizing filling for sandwiches for supper or to pack in the lunch baskets.

Nervous Break-Down

MRS. ANNIE LANGE, of R. F. D. 1, Burlington, Tex., writes as follows regarding her experience with Cardui: "Some time ago I had a nervous breakdown of some kind. I was very weak and so nervous. I had fainting spells and suffered a great deal, but more from the weak, trembly, no-account feeling than anything else. I knew I needed a tonic, and needed it badly. I began the use of Cardui to see if I couldn't get some strength, as I knew of other cases that had been helped by its use. I soon saw a great improvement, so I kept it up. I used seven bottles of Cardui, and can say the money was well spent, for I grew well and strong. Am now able to do all my housework and a great deal of work besides."

If you are weak, run-down, nervous and suffer from the ailments peculiar to women, it is very likely that Cardui will help you, in the way it helped Mrs. Lange and has helped thousands of others, during the past 40 years. Ask for, and insist on, Cardui.

Slice white bread and butter the slices evenly, then make into sandwiches with thin slices of American cheese, or sliced dried beef. Place the sandwiches in a wire broiler and toast over a fire until brown on both sides. Bacon crisped in a frying-pan makes toothsome sandwiches."

THE WAY OF HAPPINESS.
*****
Wouldst thou the ways of Happiness divine?
Then seek it not in Fame or

But let thy heart to Wisdom's ways incline.—
He is happiest who forgets himself!
—Fletcher Davis.
*****

Fletcher's Farming, Fletcher Davis's farm paper, edited and published at Hondo, has reached its first milestone and seems to be gaining ground. The paper is disseminating a lot of good information, and The News wishes the paper continued success.—Devine News.

The season of fairs is here. The community fair may be made a valuable and helpful enterprise if properly managed and kept true to its rightful purpose. It should be made an exhibit of the community's products, and questionable amusements and gambling devices should be ta-booded.

When considering what school to send your boy or girl to this coming term, you have but to consult the advertising columns of FARMING.
There you will find some of the state's leading educational institutions bidding for your patronage.
You will make no mistake in your selection of a school if you consider the merits of these institutions.

If you are not getting the results you would like to get with your live stock and your poultry you will do well to visit your community fair and study the exhibits there. Perhaps you will find there the breed you need and from which you can secure the coveted success. It is little less than criminal negligence to grow mongrels and nondescripts now when it is so easy to have pure breeds.

Readers of FARMING will recall that the July issue "took a fall out of" the hodgepodge of meaningless words that had been submitted to the people of Texas to be voted on July 28th for adoption as an amendment to our state Constitution. After the monstrosity reached the public gaze it was found to be such a mess and so sure of defeat at the hands of the people that its proponents managed to have it recalled on a technicality so that though the expense was incurred the matter was not voted on after all. It is such half-baked legislation as this that has made the Texas Legislature a standing joke in the state.

The insidious propaganda for the Towner-Sterling education bill still goes on. Mixed along with some measure of good in this proposed law is much potential evil that can be avoided only by preventing its passage. We all know that in a Republic strength comes only from the people. The further government is removed from the people the weaker that government becomes. The effect of this proposed measure would be to remove our educational affairs further from the people. Let's have no more of this centralization.

The annual Farmers' Short Course at A. & M. College drew together about 2500 people, mostly Club boys and girls, from July 23rd to 28. It was the editor's privilege to look in on this vast assemblage for a few days and to participate in a small way in the deliberations of the Agricultural Writer's Conference. The A. & M. College is doing a vast work for the state, one beyond the knowledge of the average citizen, and it would have paid any one to have mingled with this vast assemblage and caught some measure of its inspiration. We shall never be able to repay our debt of gratitude for the courtesies extended us during our all too brief stay at the College.

The State Supreme court has reversed the decision of the lower courts in the Farm Bureau cotton contract case wherein the contract had been by the lower courts declared void and unenforceable. Upon what technicality the decision was rendered or what the status of the case is at present we are not advised as the press has been strangely silent on these two important phases of the matter. It goes without saying, however, that this is not the end of the litigation. To function successfully all are ready to admit that any business association—and a co-operative marketing association no exception—must be guided by the terms of a valid and binding contract. But a contract to be binding must be equitable and fair to all contracting parties. This, in the judgment of the lower courts, is not true of the Farm Bureau cotton contract.

Sending the boy or girl away to college often means a great sacrifice to the parents, and often times when facing the possibilities of a penurious old age, without material savings and with earning capacity on the wane, one may be inclined to hesitate.
But the boys or girls of today who fail to secure college training for their lifework face life under a terrible handicap and have but a remote possibility of achieving success. Of course, many college graduates also fail in the struggle of life and will continue to do so. But the college graduate has opportunities opened up to him that are shut forever in the face of the non-graduate, even though the non-graduate may be possessed of superior native ability.
Therefore, it behooves every parent to make every reasonable sacrifice to send his child to college—unless the child deliberately chooses instead to be "a hewer of wood and a drawer of water" rather than a leader among his fellows. On the ambitionless or the prodigal spendthrift the sacrifice would be love's labor lost.

THE PROPOSED WORLD COURT.

Having failed to thrust the United States into the League of Nations, says Vardaman's Weekly, the Money Power is now attempting to lead us in through the so-called "World Court." A good many well-meaning citizens are advocating our entrance into the "World Court," and their good faith need not be questioned.
However, they base their approval of the Court upon a misconception of the facts, and a misunderstanding of the workings of the court.

In the first place, it is necessary to answer the question: "What does this country need to do with a World Court?" We have no territorial questions in dispute. We have no boundaries in dispute. We have no quarrels anywhere to settle. Therefore, what use have WE for a court?

If other countries have quarrels to settle, let them have a court and settle their quarrels that way. It is better than fighting and killing.

It is not necessary for the successful operation of the World Court that this country join in. If England, France, Belgium, Italy and Japan need and want a World Court, let them have it, support it, adhere to it and operate it. We have no quarrels, and do not need the Court.

But it is necessary to have this country join in, so that when the Court makes a decision, we can be the sheriff and execute the sentence.
Can't you see that?

Suppose John Doe sues Richard Roe in Pontotoc County, Miss., and recovers a judgment for $1,000. It is the duty of the sheriff of Pontotoc county to go out and collect that $1,000, and distrain and sell the property of Mr. Roe, until he has collected it.

Suppose our World Court renders a judgment against Germany for $50,000,000,000 in favor of France, England, Belgium and Japan. It would not look well for the holder of a judgment to collect his own account, so the United States, as a disinterested party, would be made the sheriff, and ordered to collect the judgment. Can't you see how it would work?

The proponents of the World Court say that it has no connection with the League of Nations. That is a lie.

The Big Nations, holding membership in the Council of the League, have their judges elected by the Council. The Assembly of the League elects the judges of the little states. All judges are elected by the Council and Assembly of the League, and unless a nation is a member of the League, how can it elect a judge, or become a party to the World Court?

The World Court is created by the League; its judges are elected by the League, and no decision of the Court can be enforced until the League appoints a sheriff.

Just as well say that a man can kneel at the altar, without first entering the church, as to say that a nation can be a member to the World Court and not a member to the League.

Suppose this country was a member of the World Court. Suppose that Japan insists that her subjects be permitted to immigrate to the United States, as she will. We object.
Japan appeals to the Court. In other words, she brings suit against us. We would be compelled to try the case before a Court elected by the League of Nations. In case of an adverse decision, our Constitution would be overthrown and subordinated to the Court and the League.

The World Court is not exactly a court as we understand the word.
There are no laws or rules for it to construe. The powers of the "World Court" are so broad that it has full legislative powers as well as judicial powers. When a matter is submitted to it, laws and rules can be enacted, construed, and through and by the League enforced.

Citizens of America, be not deceived. Once we enter the World Court, the Constitution and laws of this country will be subordinated to a governing body composed of eleven men, only one of whom will be an American. Are you willing to be ruled by eleven men, only one of them representing your country, and that ONE named by an irresponsible and UNCONSTITUTIONAL authority? Are you willing to be bound by the decisions of such a body?

We all take oath to obey the Constitution and laws enacted in conformity thereto. How can we obey the Constitution and the World Court?

THIS is the editorial page of August Farming. It is the editor's play-house—the one place where he does as he absolutely pleases. Subscribers to the Anvil Herald can get a season ticket, good for twelve performances, for only 50c additional. See our club rate.

Will the advocates of the Court and the League tell us where in the Constitution, Congress, the President, or any of our Courts is authorized to take part in another government, and bind themselves to obey the decisions of a body of foreigners?

Our foreign relations are placed, by the Constitution, in the hands of the President and the Senate. Nowhere does the Constitution authorize the President or the Senate to abdicate in favor of a body of eleven foreigners.

The proposal to subordinate our Constitution to a foreign governing body is so absurd, so dastardly, and so palpably un-Constitutional that it sounds foolish to think that patriotic Americans would consider it for a moment.

The World Court is a part of the League. It is created by the League; controlled by the League; supported by the League; and its decisions are enforced by the League. The nation that joins the World Court will be compelled, as a matter of self-defense, to become a member of the League. As a member of the World Court and not a member of the League, a nation would be under all the obligations of a league member, without the privileges of a member of the League.

The Wilson-Wall Street Pro-Leaguers understand the situation, and they are working for the World Court, because, they know that once we are ensnared in that THING, we will be compelled to join the League.

Once we enter the World Court or the League of Nations the proud destiny of America is forever annul-ed. We may as well haul down the Stars and Stripes and commit the American Constitution and Declaration of Independence to the flames.
We shall henceforth be the bond-servants of bankrupt Europe and mongrel Asia.

Don't slacken in your fight on insect pests. Eternal vigilance is the price of salvation against insect dep-redation.

WHAT THINK YOU OF THESE THINGS?

Seventeen citizens of Goose Creek plead guilty in open court in Houston the other day of various offences against the peace and dignity of the state.

These offences grew out of Ku Klux operations; grew out of efforts to enforce—on the soil of America where the constitution that guarantees equal protection to the humblest and the most defenceless is presumed to be the supreme law of the land—not the mad passions of an excited and frenzied mob but the deliberate and planned edicts of a self-constituted and self-styled Invisible Empire —a super government, so to speak.

And one of the guilty culprits was the justice of the peace of that precinct!

Revolting details of crime and masked mob terrorism incident to the rule of this Invisible Empire have come out of the environs of Goose Creek for more than two years.

These crimes have gone unpunished until now—until a special prosecuting attorney was employed to smoke them out.

The regularly elected District Attorney is a Knight of the Ku Klux Klan.

And as long as they could, the midnight minions of this super-government hid behind their masks and posed as poor, persecuted innocents!

A revolting crime was perpetrated at Somerville recently.

An inoffensive man was shot down by masked men in his own home, in the midst of his family, in the early hours of the night, and in a mile and a half of the busy town.

The law's representative, whose sworn duty is to preserve the peace and protect life and property in the precinct, never heard the startling news until several hours after the deed was perpetrated.

Instead of combing the face of the earth for the guilty culprits, this "peace officer" hid himself away to Austin and tried to coerce from the acting governor a statement ex-operating the Ku Klux of blame for the crime.

Evidently his conception of duty was that it is more important that the Ku Klux be not suspicious than that the guilty be apprehended.

So far as we have been informed the guilty are still at large.

And it does not seem to have occurred to this citizen of the Invisible Empire that the apprehending of the guilty is the only exoneration of the innocent need.

These are some of the fruits of invisible government in our midst.

And there are others.

Study them, and if you find a single instance of masked outrage where some petty official, upon which the perpetrators think they can depend either for leadership or protection against prosecution, is not mixed up with the mess tell us about it.

What do you think of the safety and perpetuity of a government when its sworn servants become the minions and tools of a super government, the foresworn and perjured subjects of an Invisible Empire?

Why is it that the people of Texas can not be dealt with honestly and frankly in the matter of proposed constitutional amendments? The outstanding argument in favor of the late unlamented road amendment as advanced by propagandists for it was that if it was not adopted Texas would lose ever so many millions of dollars to which she is entitled from the Federal road aid. Now, after the fiasco is over, the Chairman of the State Highway Commission comes out with the frank statement that Texas is in no danger of losing this aid notwithstanding the amendment was not even voted on. Why this belated frankness? Why keep mum and allow the public to be misled so long as the measure was pending?
It is such actions as this that causes people to look with suspicion on all proposed amendments, and for the past several years has resulted in the defeat of most of them despite their merits. And it will not cease until the people can be dealt with frankly, like intelligent human beings.

Joy is more divine than sorrow; for joy is bread and sorrow is medicine.—H. W. Beecher.

It all comes out of the same old pocket Cartoon from The Farm Journal, July 1923

"BY THEIR FRUITS YE SHALL KNOW THEM."

The fruits of the Constitution of the United States are liberty, equality, justice, educational and commercial opportunity, freedom from oppression, right to worship God as one pleases, the right to happiness and its pursuit in one's own way and pleasure, provided that way and pleasure injure not one's neighbor; the fruits of the Constitution of the United States are the ideals of America.

Probably the Constitution isn't perfect; it is the work of human hands and brains. But it is far too perfect to be "tinkered with" without very careful thought, and soberly solemnly, fearfully.

The United States will not permit a memorial to be placed in the Amphitheatre at Arlington until the man it commemorates has been dead at least ten years; time must be the test of his fame, not emotion. Yet it is emotion, and not time, or thought which begets most of the many proposed amendments to the Constitution.

Governor Albert C. Richie, governor of Maryland, and president of the Maryland Bar Association, wants to see one more amendment which would require that no future amendments be ratified by any legislature unless at least one house thereof is elected after the amendment has been proposed and unless the act of the legislature in ratifying the amendment be subject to a referendum to the people of the state.

Well meaning men and women all over the country propose dozens, hundreds of amendments to the Constitution. They have the zeal of the reformer, and in their hands is a torch of fervent love for people and for country. But a torch can burn as well as give light; it is for us all to see that unskilled hands do not hold that torch too close to the document which makes this country what it is.
There are other remedies for ills than constitutional amendments.

The fruits of the Constitution have been ripe, and sweet. Let us consider carefully before we attempt to graft new species on the vine planted so firmly by the founders of this Republic.—Selected.

WITH THE DRILLERS.

The Ina Oil Company's test well went on the pump last Sunday morning, and after pumping four hours, during which time some trouble was experienced with the pump, further pumping was rendered impossible, temporarily, by a mishap to the boiler. Statements as to the output are somewhat conflicting, some claiming the output for the four hours as in excess of thirty barrels, while others place the output somewhat less. However, all pronounce the well a paying well, and that is that since pumping started the well at brief intervals, is flowing by heads, showing conclusively that the pump, instead of lowering the well, has caused a greater oil supply.

Pumping was resumed after repairs to the boiler were made, but trouble with the pump was still met with and probably a change in its position will be necessary. It was the intention to spud in Schmidt No. 2 by this company last Wednesday but delay of the rig made this impossible. The boilers arrived and were set in place but the drill, while hourly expected, had not arrived up to our last news from the rig. It is hoped, however, that everything will be in readiness by Monday morning and no doubt by the middle of the month a great oil well will be belching forth its liquid wealth. The oil found in this field pronounced a costal crude and not shale oil, which has caused comment by experienced oil men, and it is confidently predicted by those qualified to know that the field will be a rich and long-lived one.

Lease agents are very much in evidence, but so far as we know but little acreage is changing hands. We understand it is the purpose of the Ina Oil Company to sink four wells just as fast as possible. There are numerous rumors of other wells to be drilled in at early dates, but there is no material evidence to verify these rumors. We have nothing new from the other prospective fields.

FLY-SUTHERLAND.

The Sabinal Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on the afternoon of Aug. 1, when Mr. Sterling Fly of Hondo and Miss Mary Sutherland of Sabinal were united in marriage. The Church was artistically decorated in ferns and shasta lilies while white colonnades entwined with vines were placed within the chancel-rail. Prior to the entrance of the bridal party Mrs. O. A. Fly sang "At Dawning" accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Ranken Peters who also played the wedding march. With the first strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the groomsmen, Mr. James Durham and Mr. Frank Sutherland entered followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Fly and Miss Nebe Jo Gibson. Next came the patron of honor, Mrs. W. H. McDonald, who preceded the little flower girls, Jean Wodley and Thelma Lee Sutherland. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. R. L. Sutherland, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. John Green. The wedding ceremony was performed in an impressive manner by Rev. Sterling Fisher, assisted by Rev. Walter Dibrell. As the wedding party left the church, Mr. K. K. Wodley sang "All For You". The bride was attired in a beautiful blue canton crepe suit with accessories of grey and carried a flower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore pretty blue canton crepe dresses trimmed in cream lace and carried white carnations, while the matron of honor wore grey trimmed in rose and carried pink carnations. The bride and groom are well-known to a large circle of friends who wish them much happiness in their married life. After Sept. 10, they will be at home in Sabinal.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this means of expressing our appreciation to our neighbors and friends for their kindness at the death of our beloved son and brother, Wesley Earl Mofield. We especially wish to thank Brother Foster for the beautiful words spoken in the Church and at the grave; we also wish to thank each and everyone for the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless you all. MR. AND MRS. LOUIS MOFIELD AND CHILDREN. [F. F.] Master Herbert Wilkinson returned last week after several weeks' visit with Mrs. H. L. Rogers of Dallas.

THE STOCK LAW ELECTION.

The election held last Saturday to determine whether or not horses, mules, etc., and hogs, sheep and goats should be permitted to run at large, resulted in an overwhelming vote to confine all stock. The vote for confining horses mules and cattle totaling 517; against 291. The vote on the confining of hogs, sheep and goats shows a more decisive majority, the vote on this proposition being 704 for and 123 against.

Of the seventeen voting precincts shown below, a total of but 737 votes were cast, showing a majority for the stock law of 155, while the vote on the proposition to confine the hogs, sheep and goats received a majority of 301 votes.

The following is the vote by commissioners precincts:

Commissioners Precinct No. 1.

Election Precinct No. 1-23	41	42

" " No. 4-5	6	6
" " No. 16-39	55	55
" " No. 17-11	0	0
" " No. 18-13	9	9

Total — 123 153

Commissioners Precinct No. 2.

Election Precinct No. 3-50	24	24
" " No. 5-16	18	18

" " No. 15-81	10	10

Total 256 105

Commissioners Precinct No. 3.

Election Precinct No. 7-50	24	24

" " No. 14-18	2	2
" " No. 19-47	2	2
" " No. 8-2	3	3

Total 100 16

But little interest was shown in this very important matter as indicated by the light vote cast. However, only property owners could vote and this reduced the vote largely. But had those qualified to vote exercised their right, the vote would have been much larger.

No returns had been received from Natalia up to noon Friday, but this being a small box the result will not be materially changed whichever way the box went.

FULTON-ROGERS.

On Thursday afternoon, August 2, 1923, a very quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rogers, when their daughter, Miss Emabell, became the bride of Mr. Elwyn Fulton, Rev. A. M. Foster, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. The bride, the winsome daughter of our fellow townspeople, is a native of Medina County, grew to lovely young womanhood in our midst and is greatly admired by a large circle of friends, for her many womanly graces.

The groom is well known in Eldorado, Schleicher, county, Texas, where he is engaged in the live stock business.

The wedding was a very quiet one, only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. After a brief bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Fulton will be "at home" at Eldorado.

The people of Hondo extend greetings and best wishes to the happy young couple and trust their married life will prove one of perpetual joy and prosperity.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

IF you were suddenly disinherited, cast off because you married the dearest girl in the world, and sent out into the world to wrest a living from it with hands that had in all their existence known no toil?

IF you were shanghaied aboard a sailing vessel, hammered from one port to another, carried across strange seas, and finally shipwrecked upon a shore on the other side of the world from family, position and friends.

IF—if you knew that the honor and pride of the family which disowned you depended upon the winning of the famous Derby in which your father's horse was the favorite, and that crooks had arranged to make it utterly impossible for him to win?

See what Donald Gordon did in "THE KENTUCKY DERBY", starring Reginald Denny and a wonderful cast at the Star Theatre, August 8th and 10th.

THE NATION MOURNS.

The people were shocked and grieved when the news flashed over the country that President Harding died at San Francisco, California, at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, August 2, 1923.

The President was seized with illness on his return trip from an official visit to Alaska some seven days ago. He stood the illness well and was thought to have passed the crisis when an unexpected attack of cerebral apoplexy caused almost instant death.

Here were the milestones in Warren G. Harding's life: Born in Blooming Grove, Morrow County, Ohio, November 2, 1865.

Began career as newspaper publisher, November 26, 1884.

Elected to Ohio State Senate, his first political office, November 6, 1898.

Elected Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, November 3, 1903.

Defeated as Republican candidate for Governor, November 8, 1910.

Elected to United States Senate, November 3, 1914.

Nominated for the Presidency, June 12, 1920.

Elected President November 2, 1920.

Inaugurated March 4, 1921.

Died August 2, 1923.

Vice-President Calvin Coolidge automatically became President upon the death of Mr. Harding.

MEDINA TO EXHIBIT CROPS AT AUSTIN FAIR.

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 1.—C. M. Merritt, county agent of Medina county, but formerly of Bastrop county, stopped over Saturday in Austin on his way home from College Station, where he attended the Farmer's Short Course. While in Austin Mr. Merritt said that crop conditions in Medina County this year are exceptionally good, and that unusual yields are expected in several crops.

Although the late freeze ruined much of the fruit and corn in Medina county, the yield of Milo maize, Kafir corn and cotton, will be large enough to make up for this loss, Mr. Merritt said. He also stated that the irrigated crops—rice, wheat, and the like, are thriving this year and promise abundant returns.

While in the Capital City, Mr. Merritt made arrangements to enter an exhibit from Medina county in the Texas State Exposition. Austin, October 1 to 6. The exhibit will include all of the crops raised in Medina county, Mr. Merritt said, and will do justice to the county, and to the fair.

There was a little girl, and she had a little curl,

Right in the middle of her forehead.

When she was good, she was very, very good,

And when she was bad, she was—popular.

—Humbug.

Quite a number of our people are attending the Baptist encampment at Alto Frio. However, as we have been unable to learn the names of all those in attendance we will have to content ourselves with this brief announcement.

O. L. L. EX-STUDENTS ORGANIZE.

On Wednesday afternoon, August 1st, at the home of Mrs. F. S. Cockrell, the following ex-students of Our Lady of the Lake met for the purpose of organizing a music club: Mrs. W. O. Rothe '13, Mrs. F. S. Cockrell '14, Misses Octavia Davis, Josie Rothe '20, Annie Miller '23, Florence Scherrer, Irma Haegelin and Alice Rothe.

With Mrs. W. O. Rothe as Chairman of the meeting, an interesting business session was held during which Mrs. W. O. Rothe was elected president, Mrs. F. S. Cockrell first vice-president, Miss Florence Scherrer second vice-president, and Miss Josie Rothe secretary-treasurer. The club decided to hold a meeting once a month with a fee of twenty-five cents for each member. All ex-students of Our Lady of the Lake in Medina County are urged to attend the next meeting and to offer suggestions for a suitable name for the club. Misses Octavia Davis and Annie Miller will be the hostesses, the date of the meeting to be announced later.

Mrs. Cockrell entertained in a charming manner and had as other guests Mrs. Haegelin, Miss Irene Saathoff, Miss Gertrude Reilly and Miss Ethel Hutzler. Miss Saathoff rendered several beautiful numbers on the violin. Mrs. Cockrell, assisted by Miss Hutzler, served a delicious salad course to her guests.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

The writer of the following letter was recently stranded in Hondo. She was endeavoring to reach the home of a brother but could go no further on account of the lack of funds. Mr. C. C. Taylor and other kind-hearted people, learning of her distress, took up a collection and sent her on her way. In the letter following she expresses her gratefulness:

Mercury, Texas, July 30, 1923. Mr. Taylor.

Dear Friend,—I will drop you a few lines to let you know that I got to brothers, and they said I could have a home. I never will forget you all. I thank you all every day for your kindness. I hope some day I can return your kindness in some way. I got through all right. I thank you all with all my heart.

Bye bye,

Miss R. M. Slaughter.

WILLIAM SPEERS FOUND DEAD.

The local Justice of the Peace was notified early Friday morning, July 20th, that a dead man had been found on the R. R. tracks at a point where the Pear Valley Ranch road crosses the Railroad. Justice of the Peace Louis Biediger and Constable Paul Jungman drove out to the place soon after the report came in and found the mangled remains of a stranger on whom after thorough searching was found a receipt for a year's dues from Ahrie No. 9, F. O. E. of Sacramento, Calif. Also a discharge from the U. S. Shipping Board, and a U. S. Shipping Board Passport, all are William Speers, with attached photograph which was a true likeness of the mangled man's face.

A telegram was sent to the Ahrie No. 9, Fraternal Order of Eagles at Sacramento, who informed relatives, from whom a wire was received to embalm the corpse, about a half hour after the same was buried. Owing to the hot and sultry weather it was not deemed advisable to keep the remains over night, therefore they were buried in St. Mary's Cemetery at 7 o'clock P. M. Friday evening, Rev. Father Heinzlmeier officiating, certain Catholic emblems found on his person making it very probable that deceased was a Catholic.

From observations it seemed that the deceased was a so-called blind passenger on a west bound train who in some way got under the wheels and his body was cut in two. He is now on his last voyage, may he safely arrive at the port, and may he rest in peace.

Only Offered $55. For Car Nice Melons.

W. G. Driscoll loaded a car of fine melons this week, the best all round car we have noticed, and informed the editor he was offered $55. for the load on the tracks here, about good pay for hauling them in from the farm. These melons were of the best strain of Tom Watsons, of uniform size and weighing around 30 pounds.

Stalks of cotton brought to town with 20 or 30 grown bolls show many of them are stung and practically ruined by the weevil. Some of the best farmers say the bending of the stalks under the weight of bolls look good but may be very deceptive; unless the weevil lets up his work. Hot dry weather now with quick opening would be better we think.

First Bale Reached Town Friday Evening.

As predicted last week, Devine's first bale reached town Friday afternoon, and was ginned Saturday. It was raised by Victor Hernandez, weighed 489, ginned free and sold to Adams Company at 27 cents.
